Your Money is Safe & Federally Insured

National Credit Union Insurance Fund

Your deposits are insured by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF), which is managed by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), an independent agency of the United States Government. Your deposits are insured up to $250,000 per individual account and up to $250,000 for Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs).

American Share Insurance

Members of ACCU with qualifying personal accounts exceeding the maximum level of coverage provided by the NCUA are also insured up to an additional $200,000 by American Share Insurance (ASI) for a total of $450,000 of coverage. And, qualifying business/church accounts exceeding the maximum level of NCUA coverage are also insured up to an additional $100,000 by ASI for a total of $350,000 of coverage. ASI's additional insurance coverage at ACCU only applies to qualifying personal checking, savings, Term Share Certificates (TSCs), and Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs) and to qualifying business/church accounts.
