Purpose:

The Senior Financial Analyst role encompasses meticulous financial analysis, modeling, reporting, and budgeting to optimize profitability and support decision-making. Responsibilities span from generating comprehensive financial reports, including liquidity assessments and profitability analyses using historical and projected data, to managing Asset-Liability Management practices and regulatory compliance. This position is a liaison between Financial Accounting and Finance Analytics, ensuring seamless data flow, while proactively seeking process enhancements and maintaining precision in external reporting. With a foundation in accounting principles and advanced analytical skills, the Senior Financial Analyst drives operational efficiency, prioritizes data accuracy and integrity, and upholds organizational values.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assist with the annual budgeting process and ongoing rolling forecast modeling, reporting and data entry/collection.
- Provide analytical support to the Asset Liability Committee (ALCO) through monthly analysis and written presentation of the financial results. Assist with performing rolling forecast and projection/forecasting models and scenarios.
- Backup support for ProfitStar ALM modeling, balancing, and financial reporting.
- Prepare financial statements, supporting schedules, and monthly lender compliance reports, as well as assisting external auditors and tax preparers with documentation.
- Handle regulatory filings and compliance reports, provide financial and tax packages to tax CPAs, and manage various tax compliance tasks.
- Ensure efficient and accurate processing of accounts payable activity. Backup to Finance Dept staff including Fixed Assets and Prepaid monthly balancing and processing.
- Collaborate on operating budgets, forecasts, liquidity needs, and balance sheet strategies.
- Review and approve general ledger transactions and activity.
- Prepare journal entries, analyze, and reconcile various balance sheet accounts.
- Support month-end and year-end closing procedures.

- Assist in monthly and quarterly internal reviews of key general ledger accounts.
- Utilize diverse software and databases to efficiently generate accounting documents, reports, and reconciliations.
- Identify and promptly resolve reconciling items.
- Support daily accounting activities for timely and accurate financial reporting.
- Assist in the month-end closing process, reconciliations, and relevant postings.
- Collaborate closely with the VP of Finance and AVP Controller and key business partners to identify overspending or underspending areas and uphold accountability for budget expenditures monthly.
- Undertake additional analysis and ad-hoc projects as assigned.
- Health Care Sharing cash flow management: Manage cash flow daily, identify trends and provide insights for improving cash management.
- Revenue Management: Perform and ensure Revenue posting and reconciliation.
- General Ledger Management: Maintain the integrity of the general ledger by ensuring all financial transactions are accounted for accurately and in a timely manner.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Expectations:

- Innovative thinker and initiative-taking, analytical person.
- Exhibit strong leadership qualities, including the ability to work autonomously, take ownership, and drive results.
- Versatile and adaptable with an entrepreneurial mindset, thriving in a challenging environment.

Essential Functions:

- Ability to perform duties as outlined under “Major Duties and Responsibilities.”
- Ability to communicate clearly and to be understood.
- Ability to deal with sensitive and confidential information.

Qualifications and Educational Requirements:

- 5-10 years of demonstrated expertise in a similar accounting capacity.
- Bachelor’s degree in accounting, finance or equivalent qualification.
- Strong understanding of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).
- Advanced proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite (particularly Excel, Word, and Outlook).
- Experience in ProfitStar and Prologue Financial Reporting.
- Excellent communication skills
